

CENTERVILLE FIRE DISTRICT MAY BE ENLARGED BY ANNEX

Petitions for annexation of area which would more than double the size of the Centerville Fire Protection District presently are being circulated. Sentiment indicates that sufficient signatures will be obtained to give a majority in favor of the plan.

As presently established, the Centerville district does not include the Alviso area and in a number of places does not extend farther back from established roads than 500 feet.

The petition would annex all the area which falls within the Centerville Elementary School District, and would make the fire district contiguous with the districts in Irvington, Newark, Niles, and Alvarado.

If sufficient signatures are received, the petition will go to the county board of supervisors, who can annex the area by ordinance. Commissioners of the district are: M. P. Mathieson, chairman; Judge Allen G. Norris, secretary; Fred Rogers, A. D. Lewis Jr., and Lawrence George.

YOU HAVE A LUNCH DATE TOMORROW

It's cook's day out tomorrow!

Housewives all over the township will welcome the opportunity of providing their families with an excellent and delicious luncheon, and at the same time will feel that they are contributing to a worthy cause. For tomorrow, as everybody knows by this time, Toyon Branch of Children's Hospital is giving its annual fall festival and luncheon at the Old Adobe at the California Nursery grounds in Niles. The luncheon—baked ham—will be served from 12 to 1:30 o'clock.

Mrs. R. A. Sparrowe is in charge of arrangements. She will be assisted by Meses. Elmer O'Connell, E. Carroll, Edna Overacker, C. Dana, M. Thane, R. L. Wright, L. Bunting, E. D. Bristow, W. H. Ford, and Frank Fields. Mrs. James Whipple, chairman of Toyon, will also assist.

An extra treat has been provided with the announcement that Jed Oxborrow, agricultural teacher at Washington High, is bringing a young music student, Vince Wallace, to perform on the marimba; and Loretta Lewis, talented young Niles singer, will sing several numbers, to keep the guests entertained.

NAVY PLANE CRASHES OUTSIDE NEWARK

There was quite a bit of excitement on Lincoln road, between Newark and Alvarado, last Thursday afternoon, October 7, when a single-engined Navy plane from the Alameda Naval Air Station, made a sudden "belly landing" in a newly plowed field.

Coming neatly to a stop in the deep dirt furrows, the plane was not seriously damaged, and the pilot walked away without a scratch.

S. P. TRAIN KILLS MAN AT ALVARADO

Donald J. Ducharme, 1010 Thiel road, Hayward, 37 years old, was instantly killed last Sunday morning when his converted pick-up truck was hit broadside by the 8:10 S.P. passenger train No. 250 at the Alvarado crossing. He is survived by a wife and one child.

Headed east toward San Jose, Ducharme had stopped for a switch engine backing up to the west into the Holly Sugar plant, and had apparently started across the tracks before the wig-wag signal ended, not knowing the fast east-bound train was approaching.

The completely demolished truck was dragged about 100 yards down the track and delayed the train, which was the Daylight connection for San Jose, about 40 minutes for engine repairs. The train's engineer was S. P. Wilson and the conductor, Charles Anderson.

Officer H. C. Prouty, of the sheriff's office in Hayward, said at the scene of the early morning tragedy, that to his knowledge it was the first fatal accident at the Alvarado crossing in several months.

ANNEXATION TO NILES SANITARY DISTRICT STUDIED

Following a meeting of the directors of the Niles Sanitary District last week, indications are that the area immediately east of Niles may be annexed to the district.

Engineer Roy Ramseier, engineer for the district, reported on a preliminary survey which he had made at the request of a number of property owners in the Ellsworth Tract, Canyon Heights, and to the southeast.

He estimated an assessed valuation in the area proposed to be annexed of $800,725. This would allow a maximum bonding limit of $120,107.75.

The engineer regards it as probable, he said, that the area could be given sewer facilities within the figure of this bonding limit.

BOARD WILLING
The sanitary board expressed its willingness to accept the annexation should it prove feasible.

Proponents of the annexation have stated that they intend shortly to circulate petitions to determine whether or not voters of the area want annexation.

COUNTY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEN DISCUSS ZONING

Precise zoning is regarded as an absolute necessity to further development of Alameda County, according to a discussion by delegates to the Associated Chambers of Commerce at their dinner meeting October 13 at the International Kitchen.

With eleven Chambers represented, including Washington Township groups, there was particular interest in land use and planning for rural areas.

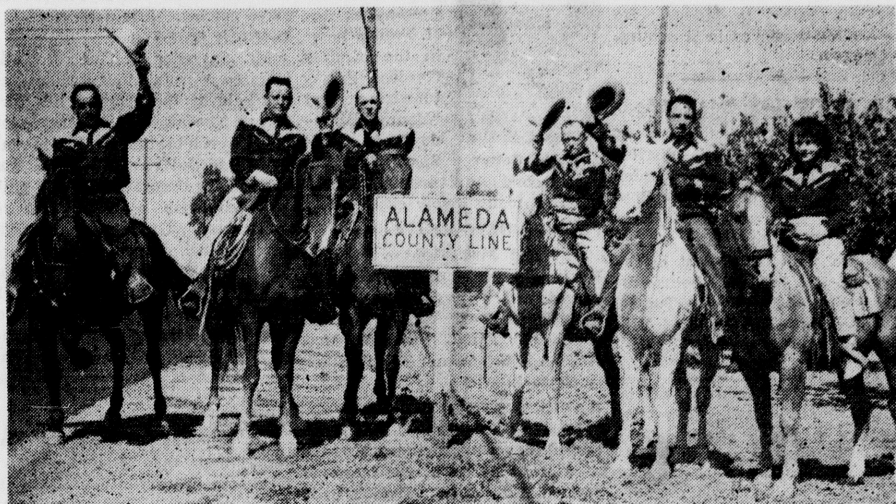

It was proposed that an Urban Planning Commission be organized for Alameda County, comprised of representatives of all cities and towns of the county, to be financed jointly by funds from the cities and the county. This group would hire an adequate staff of trained experts to make a thorough study of county problems and needs.

The detailed and accurate information would be available for both the individual communities and the county in determining future planning. It was decided to investigate the plausibility of forming such a commission and a report will be given at the next meeting.

COUNTRY CLUB MEMBERS TAKE CONTRACT LESSONS

Over 50 Country Club members gathered at the club house in Centerville last Tuesday evening to take contract bridge lessons under the instruction of George Gooden, from Carmel. The bridge session followed the regular meeting of the Home Arts section, which is sponsoring the course.

The lessons will be given once a month.

CENTERVILLE DIAL PHONES INSTALLED

Installation of dial telephones for Centerville, and the addition of the latest equipment housed in a new building, was celebrated at a "coffee and—" reception held last Saturday evening in the old phone office on Main street.

The changeover was made at 9 p.m. when the phone traffic was relatively light so as to properly test the new equipment, according to W. W. Cole of the Hayward business office and manager for this area.

Other officials attending the open house besides Cole, were: C. A. Bowes, also of the Hayward office; J. D. Holmes of Richmond, district equipment supervisor; H. R. Eggen, P. R. Frank and L. M. Dodd, all of the San Francisco regional office.

Mrs. E. B. Hodges, supervisor of the Centerville office for the last 13 years, is retiring from telephone work, while Beatrice Espinosa of Irvington, and Mrs. LaBess of Warm Springs, former operators, are transferring to the San Jose office.

Barbara Kuegeman of Irvington, also a phone operator in Centerville, plans to transfer to the Hayward office soon. The other girls from the Centerville office, Lucille Funk, Georgia Lee Funk, Loretta George and Mrs. Bernie Vail, have decided to retire from phone company work.

NILES FIRE CAUSES DAMAGE TO HOME

The Niles Fire Department was called out Tuesday morning to battle a fire at the home of the Lupe Marin family on Sycamore street. Damage to the house is estimated at $1,500. Most of the contents were ruined.

The blaze broke out, apparently, in the living room while the house was unoccupied. Neighbors saw smoke seeping out and turned in the alarm.

Fire Chief Clarence Crane and his volunteer firemen arrived on the scene promptly and soon had the blaze extinguished.

'CHILDREN AREN'T NAUGHTY,' SHE SAYS

AND, BY GOLLY, SHE CAN PROVE IT!

"There is no such thing as a naughty child," stated Dr. Edith Bryan unequivocally in her lecture last Monday evening at the local high school in Centerville.

This statement left some parents gasping for breath, parents who may have just come from home after a spine-tingling session with little Johnny after little Johnny had performed one of his neat tricks of daring—such as painting the piano a nice bright red, or giving his infant sister a gum-drop.

But after Dr. Bryan had explained her startling statement a bit further, the parents began to realize that she is probably right, that the mischievous child is not inherently naughty, but simply misunderstood by well-meaning but baffled parents.

Dr. Bryan, one of the most noted child psychologists in the bay area, and equally famed for her work as a marriage and family relations counselor, emphasized her remarks

CANYON UNDERPASS CLAIMS 2 VICTIMS

The dangerous underpass of the Niles Canyon Road and Southern Pacific Railway in Niles Canyon was the scene of another serious accident early Monday morning when two persons were severely injured as the car in which they were riding failed to negotiate the narrow, goose-neck passage.

Injured were Walter Stith of San Leandro, who suffered serious neck and possible internal injuries, and Marie Whittenberger, also of San Leandro, whose left leg was fractured and face lacerated.

The Dallas Paul ambulance was called from Centerville to the scene of the accident at 4:30 a.m. and took the injured to Highland Hospital. Fifteen truck-trailers were stopped while the wreckage was cleared away.

The dangerous underpass, most serious hazard on the Canyon Road, recently was the subject of a communication by the Niles Chamber of Commerce to the State Division of Highways.

The division replied, recognizing the need for correction of the hazard, but stated that work must wait on budget allocation. In the 1949-50 budget, no allocation was made, however.

MONDAY MORNING'S SERIOUS ACCIDENT AT THIS SPOT, IT APPEARS, WILL NOT BE THE LAST!

LONG TIME RESIDENT PASSES IN SANTA CRUZ

Ellie Lutz, 86, for 40 years a resident of Irvington, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Gunther, in Santa Cruz, on October 13. Mrs. Lutz had been residing with Mrs. Gunther for the past two years.

Funeral services will be held today (Friday) at 2 p.m. in the Rose Chapel at Oak Hill in San Jose. The family have requested that no flowers be sent.

Mrs. Lutz also leaves another daughter, Mrs. Harry Brooks of Chicago.

HUNDREDS ENJOY PORTOLA FESTIVAL

Hundreds of interested Washington Township residents and a sprinkling of other Alameda county people thoroughly enjoyed the colorful Portola Pageant at Mission San Jose last Friday evening.

Under appropriate sunset-clouded skies, Don Gaspar de Portola and his troupe, portrayed by E. E. (Dick) Kleck, San Luis Obispo county supervisor, and a group of California ranchers and businessmen, enacted the search made in 1769 by Portola for the Bay of Monterey.

Students from Washington High School took part in the pageant, in the role of Indians encountered by Portola on his journey.

Authorized by the State Legislature as a part of the California Centennial Celebration, the Portola Trek from San Diego to San Francisco deviated from the original course to present their pageant at historic Mission San Jose. Following a special Mass at St. Joseph's Church Sunday morning, the gayly costumed riders departed for the final leg of their trip to the San Francisco peninsula.

Local master of ceremonies for the pageant last week-end was Clifford Rogers, who welcomed those attending and introduced the guests of honor including: Ray Hewitt, general manager and secretary of the California Missions Trail Association; sponsors of the statewide Portola trek; William Crabb, director of the Monterey Mission Trails Association; Irvin B. Wright, liaison officer for the California Centennials Commission; Phil Whiting, author and narrator of the Portola pageant; Chester Stanley, Alameda County supervisor; Judge Allen Norris of Centerville; Father T. A. Reardon; and Edw. L. Rose, president of the Y.M.I. and general chairman of the Portola festival for the township.

Following the pageant, Father T. A. Reardon bestowed the "blessing of the wayfarer" upon the Portola riders, and the spectators moved to the I.D.E.S. grounds to witness a fine folk-dancing exhibition led by the Irvington Promenaders. Two groups of young girls from the St. Mary's of the Palms School also showed their folk-dancing ability, under the leadership of Miss Vivian Higuera.

Arrangements for the Portola pageant, folk dancing exhibition, and the Festival Dance which ended the evening, were made under the joint cooperation of the Washington Township Y.M.I., the St. Jude Y.L.I. of Irvington, and the De Guadalupe Y.L.I. of Niles.

FRANK BUCK SPEAKS ON CUBBING IN NILES

Frank Buck, senior Boy Scout field executive of Southern Alameda County, was guest speaker last Tuesday afternoon at the regular meeting of the Niles P.T.A.

Buck spoke on Cubbing, and the value of it for boys 9, 10 and 11 years of age. He urged mothers of boys of that age group to volunteer as den mothers so that a Cub pack can be formed in Niles. "The richest resource in the country is our boys," stated the Scouter emphatically. "Let us train our boys to develop character and to become better citizens by providing them with the wonderful opportunities offered by Cubbing."

District Rushes Work On Percolation Pit

Work by the Alameda County Water District on its percolation project in the abandoned gravel pits west of Niles is proceeding satisfactorily, according to W. D. Patterson, president of the board of directors.

Lease and purchase arrangements have been completed with Mrs. J. C. Shinn and the Pacific Aggregates Co. and work is under way to rebuild the broken line of the Hayward fault, to act as the wall of an underground reservoir.

The whole program will approximate an expenditure of about $50,000, Patterson states.

RAINFALL LIGHT

Rainfall, which would be beneficial had it come either earlier or later in the year, fell on Washington Township this week. Total precipitation was .63 of an inch; .42 falling on Monday, .10 on Tuesday, and .11 on Wednesday.

It wasn't enough rain to do much good. It was just enough to do a little harm—to beans, tomatoes, and sugar beets.

Faith of many farmers, however, was well served by the rain: after all, it CAN rain in Washington Township!

Completion is expected in December, before the season of heavy rainfall, so that the percolation program can be carried out this year.

In immediate charge of operations is the district's engineer, H. F. Harrold. I. E. Flaa, consulting hydraulic engineer, and Hyde Forbes, consulting geologist, have been retained by the district as advisers.

The project, according to Geologist Flaa, is the first instance to his knowledge of man improving on an earthquake fault to serve a specific purpose.

The fault line, states E. A. Richmond, general manager of the water district, definitely separates underground water in Washington Township into two levels. Approximate present level above the fault (on the Niles side) is 18 feet above sea level. On the other side of the fault, the present average water level is 50 feet below sea level.

The fault will be reconstructed of packed clay to a height 35 feet above sea level. This should take care of the water problem, with normal rainfall, east of the fault.

Four 5-foot diameter pipes are to be laid between Shinn Lake and the largest gravel hole to run water, which otherwise would flow to the bay, into the hole for percolation into the underground gravels.

Four hundred million gallons of water a day can be saved by this method, Patterson states. The four pipes will be protected with gates which may be closed at flood stages to prevent water carrying silt from entering the pit. This silt would clog the gravels and eventually decrease percolation.

Regarded as the most promising immediate correction of the local water problem, the Alameda County Water District's percolation project is being watched with great interest, not only by farmers in this area, but also wide attention as a water conservation project.

FUNERAL RITES HELD FOR ALEXANDER OLIVEIRA

Alexander Oliveira, 65, a resident of Niles for 38 years, died last Saturday at his home on Sycamore street after a long illness. Services were held Monday from the Berge Mortuary Company in Niles, thence to Corpus Christi Church where mass was celebrated, with interment following at Holy Ghost Cemetery in Centerville.

The deceased is survived by his widow, Florence, and by the following sons and daughters: Manuel Oliveira, William Oliveira, Joseph Oliveira, Moses Oliveira, Mrs. Jerry Rebello, Mrs. Leonard George, and Mrs. Joseph Martin, all of Niles, and Mrs. John Ray of Hayward. Born in Lisbon, Portugal, he was a member of I.D.E.S. No. 75 of Niles, UPC of Niles, and of St. Mary Magdalene of San Leandro.

LOCAL X-RAYS REVEAL NEED OF FURTHER STUDY

The 1948 Chest X-ray Survey for Washington Township residents was completed September 20 after a total of 1,288 x-rays had been taken in the area. This is less than last year's total, 1,344, but more persons among those coming for x-rays were screened out this year as needing further study to determine whether they were free from disease—a total of 32 this year.

The Tuberculosis Association wishes to express its gratitude for the willingness of local residents to assist in registering those coming for x-rays, to publicize the survey in their communities by poster or theater slide, and to make available the electricity necessary to operate the mobile unit.

This x-ray survey which was sponsored by the Alameda County Health Department and the Alameda County Tuberculosis Association is part of the Tuberculosis Association's year-round program to check tuberculosis. Dr. James Malcolm, Alameda county health officer, expressed the hope that even more people will take advantage of the opportunity to have their chests checked when the Christmas Seal truck comes to Washington Township next year.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Friends and relatives were present at the H. Freitas home in the Lindsay Gardens Friday to wish a very "Happy Birthday" to little Susan Carol, on her second anniversary. Susan received many lovely gifts.

FORMER NEWARKITE

Mr. and Mrs. Hopson of New York state are the proud and happy parents of a baby girl, Patricia Jo. Patricia arrived Sept. 29 and weighed 8 pounds 1 ounce. Mrs. Hopson is the former Nancy Stark of Newark.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, DAVID

Master David Enon Lacey celebrated his second birthday Monday at a party given at the home of Mrs. J. R. Kettman. David's little friends who were present were: Joel Toste, Deborah McNieve, Jo Ann and Nancy Kettman, Jerry Kraft, Jeff Freitas, David Freitas, and Jack and Jill Kettman. The mothers of these little guests are Mrs. George Toste, Mrs. Ed Kettman Jr., Mrs. Oscar Kraft, Mrs. John Freitas Jr., Mrs. David Freitas and Mrs. Bud Kettman. Also present were Granny Freitas and Mrs. Ed Kettman Sr.

WEEKS' VISIT
Mrs. Melvin Vargas and children spent an enjoyable week visiting at Pacific Grove.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, DANNY

Master Danny Silveria celebrated another birthday at a party given at his home. Danny received many lovely gifts. Those attending the party were Mrs. Mariana Mendonsa, Mrs. Richard Mendonsa and son of Centerville, Mrs. Ann Dias and daughter from Watsonville, Mrs. Angie Silveria and family from Portola, Mrs. Lorraine Soito and son from Newark, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Maresca and daughter from Hayward, Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Vargas from Newark, and not to forget Danny's mom and dad, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Silveria.

WEEK-END JAUNT

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Rice and children, Creg and Shelby, visited over the week-end at Placerville. Dave got in a little fishing.

DINNER GUESTS

Mr. Salvador E. Guerrero was honored at a delicious turkey dinner held at the home of his parents on Thornton avenue, last Monday, in celebration of his seventeenth birthday. The table was charmingly decorated in pale pink accented with a centerpiece of pink roses. Guests enjoying the seven o'clock dinner were: Clifford Fields, Jack Gaunt, Dan Goularte, Jimmy Gunn, Bobby Brown, Bill Silveira, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pine, and Salvador's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Guerrero. After dinner games of cards and Chinese bingo were enjoyed by the boys.

BIGGEST DEER YET

Joe Calderia, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Milani and Louie Milani spent two weeks in Caterville deer hunting. Louie bagged a five-pointer and Joe Calderia bagged a 235-pounder—the biggest in Newark this year.

THREE POINTER

Henry Fields and Roy Springer and sons, Cliff and Leroy, left Friday night for a deer hunt in North San Juan, Nevada. They returned Sunday night with a perfect three-pointer bagged by Henry. They were guests of Dan and Opal Laudenslager at their ranch home in Nevada. The hospitality shown was superb. I also want to mention the fact that although Dan and Opal Laudenslager live in Nevada, they receive The Register every week, in which they enjoy reading about their friends in Newark.

TO THE HUNTERS

Deer season is now at an end and from the past reports I think the Newark hunters have done quite well for themselves. The hunters and their families ought to be pretty well fattened up for the winter that is ahead. If not, there is always the challenge of duck season which opens today. For all you brave hunters who plan to be chilled to the bone while waiting for your prey to swoop down into shooting range, I wish you luck and happy hunting.

COMMUNITY INVITED TO POT LUCK SUPPER

Old-timers, newcomers, children, adults—all are welcome to attend the big annual pot-luck dinner next Tuesday evening in the social hall of the Niles Congregational Church. The ticket of admission is either a salad or casserole dish, or dessert. The members of the Ladies' Guild will serve the rolls and coffee.

The annual pot-luck dinner is known traditionally as the time of the year when the community spirit and fellowship reaches full expression.

Following the dinner, which commences at seven, the Rev. Richard Norberg of the Eden Congregational Church in Hayward, will speak on the subject "The Church and the Youth Program Today." Mr. Norberg is known throughout the bay area as a very successful youth leader. His address will be followed by the business meeting and a program by Youth Fellowship.

Christmas and New Year's are observed as world holidays.

SCHOOL NEWS FROM MISSION

By LOIS BOTTENBERG

The boys and girls of the Mission Grammar School, under the guidance of Mr. Nathan Click, principal, Mrs. King and Mrs. Millard, have started a new school year full of plans and hopes. One of the first things that the town folks noticed was on Tuesdays when it is time for catechism at St. Joseph's Church, was that the boys and girls marched by twos from the school down the street to the regulation crosswalk with four older eighth grade members as their leaders, and on their way back they preceded the same. No one is allowed to loiter along the way and all must report to school for dismissal, at noon.

They have a regular student body reporter, Ruth Olsen, who makes a regular report to your correspondent of school affairs so the public can be informed what goes on in our grammar school. Georgia Ann Morrow also reports seventh and eighth grade "Goings Ons."

Miss Georgia reports that they have a room club with the following officers elected one day last week: Shirley Cunha, president; Joyce McGowan, vice-president; Nadine Millard, secretary; and Robert Caires, treasurer. They are making plans to have the boys play a game of football with the Warm Springs school and the girls a volleyball game, with the same school.

Ann Olsen reports that they held an election in the auditorium by secret ballot, learning how the oldsters do their balloting, October 6 and elected the following to the student body council: president, Shirley Cunha; vice-president, Nadine Millard; secretary, Joyce McGowan; treasurer, Robert Caires; reporter, Ruth Olsen; girls equipment manager, Nadine Fernandez; equipment manager for boys, David Koelsch; assistant, Jesse McGowan.

Then there are the law enforcement officers of the student body who decide upon the penalty for a misdemeanor. They are: judge, Lawrence Garcia; district attorney, Stanley Caires; assistant, Jesse McGowan; and clerk of the court, Georgia Ann Morrow.

Grandma would Sympathize- (She didn't have a Steel Refrigerator either)

Today twenty million American families are enjoying the ease and benefits of modern refrigerators made of steel. Father, Mother and the children have a wider variety of foods to choose from—health-building foods kept fresh all year 'round. Last year from their greatest peacetime production in history, America's steel mills provided the steel to make 5,000,000 new refrigerators—along with steel for everything else.

And this year the mills are turning out even more steel than in 1947.

In supplying steel for better living, the steel companies make possible:

For You—dependable refrigeration year in and year out.

For Steel Workers—many thousands of jobs at good wages.

For Everybody—health and progress.

this is news to me!

IN THE NEWS... America's steel companies have kept down prices. While the average wholesale price of basic commodities has increased about 113 percent since 1939, the average price of steel has gone up only 62 percent.

IN THE NEWS... Last year steel companies earned an average of 63 cents on the sales dollar—a lot less than people believe is fair. Most people think a fair profit would be 10 cents or more.

Crisis Demands Religious Faith, Niles Pastor Says

The following is a sermon delivered recently by the Rev. Donald Kirkbride at the Niles Congregational Church. Because there is much of value in it for those who find themselves unable to cope with the turbulence of present every-day living, The Register is printing it here, knowing that there is a definite need for such an inspirational message.

Along with other great minds of the Victorian age of English literature, Matthew Arnold fought within himself the intense struggle of doubt against belief. One poem he wrote begins:

Wearied of myself, and sick of asking
What I am, and what I ought to be,
At the vessel's prow I stand, which Bears me forwards, forwards,
O'er the starlit sea.
He ends with the stanza:
O air-born voice! long since,
severely clear
A cry like thine in mine own heart I hear;

IS THIS HOME?

When you check up, after a fire, will you find your insurance too little to cover the value of your household furnishings?

It is better to do the checking now, before the fire—and be sure of insurance sufficient to cover your loss.

"Resolve to be thyself; and know, that

He who finds himself, loses misery." Great literature is flat without a knowledge of the struggles, the feelings of those who write. The more we study it the more it means. When Matthew Arnold says, "Resolve to be thyself," he is preparing his soul for crises which lie ahead. He started out with noble purpose, self-dependence; but he stopped short and he came to know it.

Matthew Arnold, like thousands before him, was preparing himself for the emergencies which test the philosophy and moral courage of men.

Every Sunday we pray that testing might not come to us. "Lead us not into temptation and deliver us from evil," we say. That is not, however, the whole story. We know that Jesus' philosophy went beyond just praying that we not be tested. His philosophy taught us to prepare for emergencies. His parable of the man who built his house on the sand and the man who built his house upon the rock was just such teaching. The storms and winds of life provided the emergencies which caused the one to go to pieces, while the other was perfectly safe in the emergency because he had prepared himself. The future belongs to those who prepare for it.

It is crises which really prove what we are. We pray "lead us not into temptation," but we must also pray that we will have the stamina and courage to stand up under temptation. There is nothing so virtuous about people who have never faced temptation. People who fall out of love and dissolve marriages in crises have not stood the test. People who suffer emotional and mental collapse have not stood the test.

We must sooner or later come to the conclusion that the only stability and security which we can possibly find in the world is the security of our own personalities under any and all conditions of crises. If we are to be ourselves and know that he who finds himself loses misery, we must make the effort to prepare our personalities.

First of all we can prepare for crises by recognizing that no experience can be all tragedy. Too often we are carried away by our exaggerating imaginations. We are apt to see anything that happens to us personally in gigantic proportions while we are able to easily slough off what happens to others. We seem always to think that tragedy is too big for us to take any responsibility for. Fatalism is a very easy and comfortable way out although it must necessarily lead finally to cynicism, self-pity, or martyr feelings.

The Hebrews regarded catastrophes as acts of God which were meant to purify, to refine, to frighten into higher morality. Their faith in God was unshakable and no matter what happened, God would be a final refuge. "Therefore, we will not fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea. . . ."

Perhaps today we think of natural catastrophe as a part of quite explainable action and reaction in nature, and not as much the wrath and chastisement of God for his children. However, it might be healthy for us once more to think of tragedy as a cleansing or refining process. At least we stop and think when mishaps come. The depth of religion has always risen out of mirebound chaos. Men do not meditate and think profoundly when there is no struggle, nothing against which to pit their minds.

One of the ways to meet temptation is to look in our religious and historical tradition at great examples of people who have overcome failures and turned them into successes. The whole book of Job reveals the nature of one whose deep insight came from suffering. Each of the prophets in turn rose up out of intense struggle and failure among men, to give us magnificent writings. Think of the personal tragedy of Hosea whose insight came out of the failure of his marriage to Gomer the Harlot.

Jesus knew one failure after another in his relationship with his contemporaries. Yet he could say, "I have overcome the world." Paul was great in spite of failure of mind, body, and spirit.

Of course, no man can meet emergencies by a long training of self-pity. Those who immediately think of themselves and get sick at the sight of physical injury will not be able to save a life by their first aid. Personal stability depends upon our loyalty to others. Those who crack up under crises are those who have never been able to stretch loyalty beyond themselves. The miser who piles up either gold or pity for himself leaves himself open for attack. He has no arms with which to steady himself.

Unselfishness is more than a virtue. It is an absolute necessity for the healthy mind and spirit. The only possible way that many have kept their senses during the war years was by busying themselves with the needs of others and considering those yet to come.

We may pray that we be spared another such crisis for the world as the last. But we must also pray to be delivered from the evil of selfishness and self-pity.

No matter how good we think we are, no matter how powerful, we find all too many weaknesses in the best. If man could face all of his emergencies alone, we would have no right to demand that he look beyond Matthew Arnold's philosophy. But man cannot face them alone. He needs help and stability in values that are eternal.

Whenever he prays "Lead me not into temptation, but deliver me from evil," he follows with "For Thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever—Amen."

'MEDEA' COMES TO SAN JOSE OCT. 23

Judith Anderson in "Medea" will be seen in the auditorium, San Jose, in one performance only on Saturday night, October 23. Freely adapted by Robinson Jeffers from the tragedy of Euripides, "Medea" has given Miss Anderson the greatest role of her distinguished career.

The 241 performances Miss Anderson gave of "Medea" in New York last season represent the longest continuous run a Greek play has ever achieved anywhere. The grandeur and epic power of the performance has not been equaled since Duse and Bernhardt, in this generation, according to critics everywhere.

Playing opposite Judith Anderson is Henry Brandon as Jason, the hero whose faithlessness drives her to swift and terrible revenge. Hilda Vaughn as the nurse, Mary Servoss as the first woman of Corinth, Bruce Gordon, Frederic Worlock and others make up the distinguished cast. Gene Lee, one of the children, played every one of the 214 nights on Broadway, never missed even during the worst night of one of New York's worst winters.

"The Blue Danube," with Miliza Karjusz, glamorous star of "The Great Waltz," Fortunio Bonanova, baritone, and Nana Gollner, premiere danseuse, will have one performance in the San Jose auditorium on Monday night, November 8, following its 3-week run at the San Francisco Geary.

Tickets for both events are on sale at the Denny-Watrous box office, San Jose auditorium.

The 1948 U. S. lamb crop is estimated at 20,467,000 head, nearly two million less than last year.

LEGION DANCE THIS SATURDAY AT NILES

Having successfully staged two modern and old-fashioned dances, the American Legion, Washington Township Post, will give a third in the winter series this Saturday night, October 16. Dancing will be from nine to one, with Huddleson's orchestra from Livermore furnishing the music. The dance will be held at the Veterans Building in Niles.

Admission of 75 cents also includes the supper dance. Everyone is welcome to attend, and if there's any doubt about having a good time, ask one of the many who have attended the other two!

COUNTY TAXES DUE OCTOBER 27

Taxpayers in Washington Township should obtain their tax bills from the Southern Pacific station, as they come due on October 27.

County tax payments are to be made at the Bank of America from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Wednesday, October 27, or at the office of Edwin Meese Jr., tax collector, in the Alameda County Court House in Oakland, on or after November 1. Payment may also be made by check or money order mailed to Meese's office.

A Message to DEMOCRATS

On September 17, 1948, the Houston Chronicle, published by Jesse H. Jones, a member of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt's Cabinet, recommended the election of Thomas E. Dewey and Earl Warren.

An editorial said

"It should be obvious to all thinking people that we need a change in our National Administration. To deny this would be to close our eyes to conditions both at home and abroad, and generally to the mess we are in."

The Chronicle editorial said that however well-intentioned President Truman's leadership may be, "He has not shown the leadership necessary for the successful management of our national and international affairs . . . it has been demonstrated that Mr. Truman cannot work successfully with Congress or even lead members of his own party . . . open warfare between the executive and legislative branches of the government necessarily makes for bad administration at home and weakens us abroad."

"Asserting that an overhauling is badly needed, the editorial continued 'entrenched government has no intention of abandoning any field it has entered, so to accomplish any appreciable retrenchment will require a form of surgery which can only be executed by new leadership; by an administration that is not loaded and waterlogged with hangers-on."

"We Democrats can no longer discharge our responsibilities to our country, to our children and to our children's children by taking refuge in the fact that we have always been of a particular political faith; that we are Democrats and can vote no other ticket."

"Tradition should not dictate our decisions. When we go to the polls to cast our votes for President and Vice President for the next four years, patriotism should tell us to forget party labels this year."

"This will not be a case of leaving our party; rather our party, as we inherited it from our fathers, and as we would still like to have it, has left us."

"The Republican Party nominees, Governors Thomas E. Dewey of New York and Earl Warren of California, have both had successful experience in administering the affairs of their great states and are undoubtedly well qualified to direct affairs of our national government."

"THE CHRONICLE THEREFORE RECOMMENDS THEIR ELECTION."

ONE EVERY MINUTE

Now I know that the old gag about the country hick going to New York and buying the Brooklyn Bridge is probably a true story, because right here in Niles this week there occurred an incident that proves how easy it is for a human being to be suckered into things.

A comely Niles housewife was busy about her kitchen chores when she glanced out the window and saw a strange man tramping back and forth over her property which comprises a piece of ground of half an acre or so. The man was scowling darkly.

Not being of the shy, retiring nature, and being equipped with the usual amount of feminine curiosity, the housewife wiped the soap suds off her hands and headed towards the stranger, who looked about as gentle as a wild steer.

"Is there something you're looking for?" she inquired.

The man glared at her and roared, "Who owns this property?"

"Why I— or rather we, my husband and I— own it," she faltered, almost afraid to acknowledge ownership, under the man's accusing stare.

"The h— you do!" fumed the irate character. Then he stormed on, "There's not supposed to be any houses on this property! There's not supposed to be anything on this land but— but topsoil! Do you understand? I paid good hard cash for topsoil, and what do I find? I find houses, and"—he kicked disgustedly at the earth—"rocks and gravel."

"But there's some mistake," said the housewife, "we didn't sell anybody any topsoil. We were just thinking of buying some topsoil ourselves."

"Yeah, sure there's some mistake," said the man bitterly. "Those guys—they were from Oklahoma, too, same as I am— drew me a map."—he held it out for her to see—"They said they owned this piece of property. They showed me samples of the topsoil—good stuff it was, too—and I bought it for my nursery up towards Oakland."

The housewife looked at the map. There could be no doubt about it. Her property was, without question, the property indicated on the map. The man went sadly on his way, murmuring, "And they were from Oklahoma, too."

May I tack on an ending to this story especially for you gravel vultures at whom the words "rocks and gravel" just seemed to leap off the page? I will not, under any sort of duress, compulsion, or bribing, reveal the location of this—to you—CHOICE bit of property. So there!

CANYON HEIGHTS

By MARGARET COLE

HIS SIXTH

On Monday, October 11, Walter White of Canyon Heights Drive had a party to celebrate his sixth birthday. On hand to wish him luck and partake of the scrumptious refreshments were Tommy Cole, Kenny Harter, Buddy and Duane Lee Harrelson, Marshall and Robert Matthews, Sue Nielsen, Lynda Rae Moghan, Fonda Woods, Toby Miller, Joan Chrysler and Jimmy Wood, and Walter's brother, Paul. The presence of Mmes. Harrelson, Nielsen, Matthews and Miller contributed toward making the party a great success and much enjoyed by all.

NEWCOMERS

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Jaden and family have moved into the house on Stenhammer Drive, formerly occupied by the Wiswell family. Mr. Jaden is connected with the E. H. Frick Plumbing Co. of Niles. The Jadens have two children in grammar school and another son, four years old.

ANOTHER PARTY

The short pants set of Canyon Heights enjoyed another party this week on the occasion of Kenny Harter's fifth birthday. Those helping Kenny celebrate were his playmates, Joan Chrysler, Kenneth Springer, Gordon Westray, Norma Lee Borba, Bo Pierce, Walter White and Tommy Cole.

The Harters are comparative newcomers to Canyon Heights and Mr. Harter just recently returned from China where he was stationed for two years.

F. D. AUXILIARY HAS INSTALLATION

New officers were installed Wednesday night at a meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Irvington Fire Department, held at the firehouse.

President for the ensuing term is Evelyn Peixoto, with Eva Mayer, vice-president; Elsie Rogers, secretary; Wanda Leal, treasurer, and Mary Freitas, past president, as sergeant-at-arms. The committee chairmen are: May Raymond, cards; Pearl Guardanapo, publicity; and Lucille Day, decorations and entertainment.

Following the installation, perfect attendance awards were presented to Mary Freitas, who also received the first award 9 years ago when the Auxiliary was organized, and to Delmeda Sylvia.

The Washington Monument cost a total of $1,500,000.

ROTARY, LIONS IN JOINT MEETING

Seventy-two Washington Township Lions and Rotarians turned out in an inter-club meeting Tuesday night at the International Kitchen to hear Merrill F. Woodruff of the U. S. Department of Commerce discuss the need for stepped-up sales training and market research in competitive days ahead and to see a sound picture, "Selling America."

Mr. Woodruff, business specialist in the San Francisco regional office, stated that sales personnel had largely forgotten how to sell and that this is particularly true of retailers.

He cited the case of a wholesale hardware concern which just prior to a sales meeting sent a young lady out from headquarters with $150 and instructions to travel from the Canadian to the Mexican border, stopping in hardware stores all along the route and buying anything that any clerk offered to sell her. So lackadaisical was the interest in even attempting a sale that she completed the tour with having spent only $30.

"Market research is available to any concern, large or small, and can be conducted by its own staff regardless of size," Mr. Woodruff said.

He gave as an example the immigrant, ambitious to run his own grocery, who worked and saved money to provide his capital by running a garbage route. In the process he stripped all labels from tins and bottles and saved box tops, which he stored in his basement until the day he was ready to venture into business for himself.

When that time came he sorted all his labels and box tops into piles by commodity, brand and size. "Tony" knew then what people wanted and started off in business with a "live" inventory and good prospects for a rapid turnover. He appreciated the fundamentals of market research which he arrived at by his methods.

The meeting was opened by Lion Bob Moore, president, and in turn presided over by Warren Gravestock, Rotary president, who commented on the fact that the Lions Club is officially designated as from Centerville with Bob Moore a resident of Niles, while Gravestock, a resident of Centerville, was president of the Rotary Club of Niles, which numbers its members throughout the township.

Program chairman was Rotarian Chuck Kraft.

Paulsens Return From Denmark Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Iver Paulsen and their children, Elsa Marie and Paul, have returned to their home in Irvington, after a three months' flying trip to Denmark.

Mrs. Paulsen visited her home in Vile, and they then stopped at Mr. Paulsen's home in Ribe, where they were welcomed by their respective mothers, and family.

Leaving their car in New York, after stops enroute at Salt Lake City and Washington, D. C., the Paulsens flew by American Airlines to Denmark. They say that conditions there are not too critical, although there is a great need of raw materials, making it necessary for the Danes to export everything they can spare, to build up dollar credit. Denmark residents are still under a rationing program on most food and clothing.

After picking up their car in New York on the return trip, the Paulsen family visited Niagara Falls and Yellowstone National Park before reaching California.

A Foursome

The Robert Buntings of Niles have now become a foursome, with the birth, on September 30, of their second son, Patrick Melvin, born at Hayward Hospital. Patrick's older brother is Paul Allen, age three. The infant weighed 9 pounds, 11 ounces at birth.

Anniversary Celebration

Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Andrade of Niles celebrated their fifteenth wedding anniversary on October 7 by having 16 relatives in to a family dinner. Their daughter, Beverly, 11, honored her parents by singing one of their favorites, "The Anniversary Song."

LOCAL BEGONIA GROWERS HONORED

An exhibit arranged by the members of the Southern Alameda County branch of the American Begonia Society took first prize in their division at the San Mateo County Fiesta held two weeks ago. Both fibrous and tuberous begonias were included in the display, which is arranged under the direction of Charles Perry of Hayward.

Township residents taking part in the blue-ribbon winning exhibit were: Mr. and Mrs. Ray A. Alberts and H. J. Bolyard of Newark, and Fritz Waltenberger of Centerville, at 9:30 a.m.

GIRL SCOUT LEADERS TO MEET THURSDAY

The Girl Scout Leaders Association of Washington Township is holding a meeting for all leaders, assistant leaders, and Brownie leaders next Thursday, October 21, at the Country Club house in Centerville, at 9:30 a.m.

TICKETS GOING FAST FOR WELFARE FLOWER TOUR AND TEA OCTOBER 26

Tickets for the Child Welfare Club flower arranging tour and tea, to be held on October 26, are being snapped up like tickets to a Big Game, according to a report from committee members who met at Mrs. Thomas Power's home in Centerville last Monday.

The enthusiasm which the flower tour and tea is arousing not only locally but even in women's groups across the bay portends well for the success of the affair, which is being heralded as an opportunity for the community to show its backing of an organization which devotes its efforts and monies entirely to taking care of the needs of township families suffering from deprivation and want.

Baby Shower Given For Mrs. Schelbert

Lena and Elsie Horat were co-hostesses last night (Thursday) at a baby shower for Mrs. Joseph Schelbert of Centerville.

Mrs. Schelbert's home was the scene of the lovely party, and the guests included: Mmes. Charles Schelbert, Margaret Reichmuth, Martha Marshall, Marjorie Pine, Frank Pine, Ida Silva, Betty Silva, Rosemary Ramsell, Lil Wipfli, Hortense Avilla, Mary Rose, Mary Silva, Dolores George, Loretta Dickenson and her mother, Mrs. Caton, Isabel Vargas, Mildred Amaral, June Duarte, Emma Gomes, Freida Bauhofer, and Miss Elly Kinzli.

GIRL SCOUTS CAMP

Nine girls of Girl Scout Troop No. 1 of Niles recently enjoyed an "overnight" at the Hayward camp. Chaperones were Mrs. W. F. Lamoreux and Mrs. L. R. Creighton.

Birthday Fun at Warm Springs

Celebrating her 15th birthday last Monday evening, Jeannette Nunes of Warm Springs was honored at a party at her home given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Nunes, and her brother Jerry.

Cards and other games were played for prizes, followed by refreshments.

Attending the gathering were: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Compton and Caroline and Audrey of Niles, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hendricks and Steven of Milpitas, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Cardoza from Warm Springs, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Garcia and Junior of San Jose, Albert and Dolores Durazo, and Genevieve Morris, all of Warm Springs.

M. J. Bernardos and Party Return from Europe

"We're glad to be home," agree Mr. and Mrs. Manuel J. Bernardos, and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Furtado, all of Centerville, who returned last week from an extended tour of Europe, including trips to Portugal and Santa Maria Island.

Leaving Santa Maria by plane, the travelers ran into a hurricane off the Atlantic Coast and made an unexpected landing at Nova Scotia. Flying from there to Boston, they then began the homeward jaunt by way of New Orleans, Texas, the Carlsbad Caverns in New Mexico, and finally back to sunny California, after an extremely interesting and eventful vacation.

Two Women Feted At Supper and Shower

Mrs. Arthur Belshaw of Centerville and Mrs. Jack Rathbone of Santa Barbara shared honors last Wednesday evening at a shower and buffet supper given for them by Mrs. Clyde Voorhees and Mrs. Karl Nordvik at the Voorhees home.

The table decor centered around the "baby shoe" theme, with a large baby shoe as the centerpiece and miniature shoes used as nut cups and place cards. The mothers-to-be were presented with lingerie for themselves rather than the usual "baby things."

Those present, in addition to the guests of honor, were: Mrs. Mildred Brown, Doris Van Scoy, Beth Grimmer, Marjorie Janssen, Gertrude Enos, Frances Mann, Marge Goodwin, Ruth Vieira, Minerva Rees, Ann Louise Katzer, Evelyn Briggs, all localites, and Dorothy Kurz and Mary Louise Zingheim of San Jose, and Lois Copeland of San Mateo.

Open House for L. A. Solon's Son

Robert Leon Solon and his bride of a month ago, the former Hollis Marion Nichols of Oakland, were honored by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leon A. Solon of Niles, at an open house reception at their home last Monday.

About 65 friends and relatives of the young couple attended the party, including the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stanley of Oakland. Other out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Bertolozzi and their son Rudy, Al Bertolozzi, and Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Solon Jr., all of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Solon, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Solon, and Mr. and Mrs. Al McCarthy, all from Oakland; and Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Solon of Mission San Jose.

The Robert Solons are now living in Oakland, and he is in the maritime service with the American President Lines.

Reception Held For Newlyweds

Over 200 people attended a reception dinner-dance last Sunday night in Irvington for Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stevenson and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schelbert. Both young couples were recently married.

Given by Meinrad Schelbert of Irvington, the party took place at Roethlin's Cafe and featured a "weinerschnitzel" dinner.

Mrs. Stevenson is the former Marcella Bliss of Niles, while Mrs. Schelbert is a native of Switzerland, who met her husband during his recent trip to that country.

Schelbert is well known around Irvington, where he formerly operated Swiss Park with Joe Studer. Both Studer and Schelbert returned a few months ago after staying in Switzerland for nearly a year and a half. The Schelberts are now living in San Francisco.

Newark Improvement Club Has Meeting

Mrs. T. C. Gunn, president, of Newark, presided at the regular monthly meeting of the Newark Improvement Club, held last Tuesday evening at the Youth Center.

Co-hostesses for the meeting and social which followed were Mrs. Mary Gastelum and Mrs. Jane Dias.

Plans were discussed for a club rummage sale to be held October 21, 22 and 23, at the Youth Center, from 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Mrs. Gunn said anyone in the Newark area having "white elephants" or rummage material should call her at Newark 3611 and she will collect it.

Leaves for Texas

Richard James, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. James of Irvington, is leaving today for Texas, having just recently enlisted in the Army Air Corps. He has been a student at San Jose State.

'TWO ON A CONTINENT' DISCUSSED BY DECOTO GROUP WEDNESDAY

One of the most interesting meetings of the year was held at the home of Mrs. A. L. Costa, Wednesday, October 6, when the Decoto Discussion Group met and discussed "Two on a Continent" by Lili Foldes. The meeting was under the leadership of Mrs. Wiswell, who led the discussion of this highly interesting and humorous account of the travels and experiences of a young Hungarian journalist and her concert pianist husband, Lili and Andor Foldes. Andor's concert tours took them to all parts of the United States, and so, as seen through the eyes of an alert and charming personality, America is presented to us in a new and exciting manner. It is a happy combination of biography and travel.

Preceding the meeting a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess. Mrs. Mae Watkins was a guest.

Mrs. Bernie Joseph will be hostess to the group at her home November 3. The book selected by Mrs. Florence Walker to be discussed at that time is "From the Top of the Stairs" by Gretchen Finletter.

VOW EXCHANGE AT ST. JOSEPH'S FOR LORRAINE ROSE AND ROSS CASTRO

St. Joseph's Church in Mission San Jose provided the setting for the last Sunday afternoon vow exchange of Lorraine Rose and Ross Castro.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Rose of Irvington, was escorted to the altar by her father, to the strains of organ music played by Dwight Thornburg. She was gown in white satin, with long train, fashioned with hoop skirt and net yoke. She carried her prayer book, with a marker of orchid, gardenias and bouvardia tied with white satin streamers. A finger-tip veil, held in place with a crown of orange blossoms, completed her ensemble.

Mrs. Doris Rego of Niles performed matron-of-honor duties for her sister and two of the bride's school friends, Pauline Nickas of Niles and Laverne Harvey of Centerville, were the bridesmaids. The attendants gowns were of a heavy crepe, Mrs. Rego's in American Beauty color and the bridesmaids of lemon yellow with big bows in back and picture hats to match. The bouquets were of white carnations fashioned in butterfly shape, and accented with American Beauty roses and yellow rose buds.

Subby Castro, the groom's brother, served as best man. Ushers were Pete Colman and Vic Orlando of San Jose.

The bride's mother was attired in a grey suit with pink accessories and the groom's mother in a black dinner dress with black accessories. Both wore baby orchid corsages.

For her going-away costume the new Mrs. Castro chose a beige suit with brown accessories and an orchid corsage. Over her shoulders she draped a forest green coat. Their honeymoon destination was unknown.

The bride is a graduate of the Irvington Elementary School and Washington High, class of '48, and has been employed at Hirsch's store in Irvington. Her husband is a graduate of the San Jose schools and is employed with the California Sheet Metal Company in San Jose.

Prior to her wedding, the bride was given a shower by her cousin, June Lewis, and sister, Mrs. Rego.

In the Hospital

Sympathy is being extended to Mrs. Lydia Orsetti by all of her many friends in the township because of an illness that is keeping her confined at Mt. Zion Hospital in San Francisco. She went there last Friday. Mrs. Orsetti has been very active in Girl Scout and Brownie work and is greatly missed by her young friends in Scouting.

Third Birthday

Little Miss Rosemary Vargas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vargas of Decoto, celebrated her third birthday recently by having a small party at her home. Helping to make the occasion a festive one were her parents, and her sister, Priscilla, and her god-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Serpa and their daughters, Evelyn and Patsy, of Hayward.

Visitors from Santa Barbara

Mrs. John Rathbone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon A. Solon of Niles, and her young son, John Robert, arrived this week from Santa Barbara for a two weeks' visit with her parents.

Thursday a luncheon was given for Mrs. Rathbone by Mrs. E. E. Dias of Niles, at the International Kitchen. Among the guests were: Mrs. Leon A. Solon, Ruel Brown, A. M. Alves, Jack Geib, F. E. Dias, Fleecie Gomes, Ed Vierra, Cy Solon, Robert Solon, R. Brunelli, Harvey Braun, James O'Connor, and the Misses Winifred and Harriet Dias.

On her return to Santa Barbara, Mrs. Rathbone will be accompanied by Miss Harriet Dias, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Dias, who will be a house guest of the Rathbones for a few weeks.

STARS LOSE; STAGE 4TH QUARTER RALLY

The Washington Stars last Saturday evening put on a fourth-quarter rally against the Sunset Athletic Club of San Francisco that turned certain defeat into something of a moral victory. Going into the fourth, the score was Sunset 21, Stars 0.

The boys from San Francisco, a strong, well trained, good-natured team, had been obviously superior all the way. But in that do-or-die quarter the Washington Stars did.

Alex Bernard started passing, and his passes started connecting. First there was a long one to Harold Alameda, who went for a touchdown. The conversion was wide.

Then another pass was caught by Hayden Freitas, resulting in the second touchdown. Again the conversion failed.

So the game ended, with the Stars on the short end 21-12.

It was a good game. But few spectators turned out to see it. The Sunset scores, in each of the first three quarters, were hard-earned.

Referee was Sam Della Maggiora of San Jose. Clyde Voorhees was umpire and Irving Hird head linesman.

Next Saturday the Stars will play away from home.

LOCAL ANGLER WINS BOUT WITH 25-POUND BASS

Cy Solon of Mission San Jose is still talking about the big one that didn't get away.

It was a 25-pound bass taken last Thursday at San Pablo Bay, with sardine bait, and rates pretty near top size of bass caught so far this year.

In the fishing party, and coming home with a fair catch of 5-to-8-pounders, were: Frank DeSalles, Tony R. Costa, Jerry Rebello, Dave Cesari and Manuel DeSalles.

NILES BALL CLUB IS CROSSED UP

Tom Pugmire and his Niles ball club showed up last Sunday at the Washington High diamond to play an aggregation of colored ball players from Alameda. But the Alamedans didn't show. But the Niles boys split up into two teams and had a ball game anyhow.

Washington Huskies Take League Opener from Gilroy

The Washington Huskies, captained by Left End Al Morris, won their second game and league opener of the season last Friday night at Gilroy, defeating a weak Gilroy varsity 28-0.

The Washington 130's made it a twin victory, defeating a supposedly strong Gilroy lightweight team by a score of 18 to 0.

The varsity's first tally came midway in the first quarter through the air, on a pass from Joe Sankene, on the 30-yard line, to Gil "Snags" Orozco. Orozco took the pass on about the 12-yard line and fought his way over for 6 points. Dan Goularte's attempted conversion was blocked.

BLOCKS PUNT

The second score in the game came when Bernie Day, at guard, smashed through the Gilroy line to block a punt, knocking the ball into and out of the end zone for an automatic safety. The score then stood Gilroy 0, Washington 8.

The Huskies scored once more in the first half on a line plunge by Goularte from the one-foot line. His conversion was good.

So ended the first half, 15-0.

LEWIS SCORES

The Huskies came back to score again when Mel Lewis, at fullback, went off-tackle for 2 yards into the end zone, making the score 21-0. The attempted conversion by Goularte was wide.

In the final quarter Goularte, one of the few first to play in that quarter, broke off right tackle, running as well as the best of seatbacks, for 27 yards and the final Huskie tally. Goularte's attempted conversion was good.

68-YARD RUN

Again the standout on offensive running was Al Durago, who turned in the longest run of the game and set up the second touchdown.

when he went off-tackle 68 yards to the Gilroy two-yard line. He again had the greatest average of the evening, averaging 11.7 yards per carry on 10 carries.

Strange as it may seem, San-kene and Goularte each had a net yardage gained from scrimmage of 68 yards, each on 11 carries, for an average of 6.18 yards per carry.

Mel Lewis played a good running game behind Goularte, averaging 5 yards per carry on 8 carries. Recend and Brownlee also played fair ball, averaging 11.5 on 2 carries and 2.75 on 4 carries, in that order.

STRONG LINE

Standouts on defence were Kiouss, Lizardo, Day, Morris, Pine, and Bettencourt. Bettencourt played a good game, starting in place of Herring, who was confined to the bench due to slight injuries.

The Huskies still have not shown themselves to be one of the big powers in the S.C.V.A.L., but tonight should tell the story. The Huskies and Puppies travel to Sunnyvale to play the Fremont Indians, always one of the stronger teams in the league.

130'S ARE GOOD

The 130 team seems to be shaping up pretty well, considering the amount of green players. The touchdowns scored by the Puppies, captained by Lanao Moga, were made by Risaoka on a pass from Moga; the second when Leonard Salvador, who also did a fine job on kickoffs, recovered a block punt of Gilroy's in the end zone; and the third was set up by another blocked punt, then Balcieta went off-tackle three yards to score. Outstanding players were: Moga, Hisaoka, Salvador and Balcieta.

BACK FROM CONVENTION

Jack MacGregor of the Newark Elementary School, Gus Robertson from the Irvington Elementary School, J. V. Gould of Washington High, and Sam Scott, member of the board of trustees for both the Newark Grammar School and the high school, have all returned to their respective home posts after a pleasant trip to Long Beach last week for the annual state convention of superintendents of schools.

They say a good time was had by all, but it was "too hot."

IRVINGTON CLUB WINS CLOSE GAME

The Irvington Merchants added another win to their impressive record by scoring a 2-1 win over Daly City at the Irvington school diamond last Sunday.

The game went seven innings with no score at all. Then E. Rose and A. Rivers connected and tallied 2. It looked like that was going to be the ball game, but in the final inning Short-stop Potter of Daly City crossed the plate for the opponents' only score.

Irvington made 5 hits for Daly City's 8. Irvington Pitcher J. Garcia struck out 5, while the Daly City pitcher struck out 7.

The game featured one double-play, a la World Series, Chapman to Garcia to Roderick.

FLYING

The Center Field Pilots are staging one of their Super Wing-Dings at Pland's in San Lorenzo, on the evening of October 23. Dancing and the awarding of many prizes will feature the evening's program.

Dr. Tom Wilson was a participant in the annual Chico to San Mateo Air Race and although the results indicate that he went for the ride, it was an experience that few air men get a chance to log—or care to. The proper technique for such a deal calls for a maximum altitude of about 200 feet across the Sacramento Valley with variations and double stops for power lines and shovel handles which some jerk left standing up. Due to a stiff headwind many of the planes ran out of gas or gave up due to air sickness. With 39 planes in the race, the local Ercoupe finished 20th, which means it was a lonely ride and you get your prize in that line over there—next week.

Clyde Higuera passed all of the tests and is now a qualified private pilot, land plane single engine, and when you use the radio don't get hungry if it sounds like bacon frying, go home and get it fixed and come back by way of the jeep. In a spirit of levity, he has been called "Yo-Yo" because of his peculiar landing style, but he insists that this "cease and be" be given the respect which his title demands.

The Alameda County Sheriff's Aero Posse flew to Quincy last week and held a conference with the Plumas County sheriffs. Six planes left the East Bay Saturday

How to handle high voltage power lines

It takes skill to handle high voltage lines... but it's everyday work for P.G. and E.'s highly trained crews. Wielding their "hot sticks" or live-line tools—more than 80 in each kit—they service and repair California's electrical highways to keep the flow of power trouble-free. Line crews are provided with rubberized equipment that weighs 100 pounds, including sleeves, snap-on jackets, line hoses (or "snakes"), insulator hoods (or "pigs"), and blankets.

Rubber gloves designed to resist 10,000 volts give ample protection to workmen who handle "hot" lines carrying up to 4500 volts, the prescribed safety limit. With "hot sticks" special crews handle lines charged with as much as 220,000 volts.

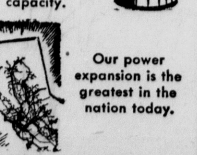

Three years' field work, including a "hot line" training course, are required to become a P.G. and E. lineman. 600 men have qualified in the past year—men who today are helping speed more power to Northern and Central California.

For the record

Our 12,000 miles of line built since the war would reach halfway around the world.

We are adding nearly 2 million horsepower of generating capacity.

Our power expansion is the greatest in the nation today.

Work never stops on our power-building program

How an injured cable calls for help

1. Here's the "ear"—an electronic ear called a low insulation alarm. It listens for underwater cables to signal they're in trouble. Right now the meter shows something's happened... perhaps a sharp submerged rock has cut a cable... and vigilant telephone men using another testing device locate the break that may be miles away.

2. On the job fast, a repair barge grapples for the cable and lifts it from its underwater bed... guided almost to the exact spot by the distant test center. And the moment the break was discovered, other telephone people in the Traffic Control Bureau set up emergency routes to make any delay on your calls as brief as possible.

3. At top speed, skilled workmen splice in a new section and the cable is soon back in service. Although there are hundreds of underwater crossings in the West's many bays and rivers, such emergencies are infrequent. But telephone people are on the job 24 hours a day to keep your telephone ready to work for you any time you need it.

4. When you make a telephone call, you hire a valuable servant for low wages... a more useful servant than ever before. It can do more jobs, run more errands. For today there are twice as many telephones in the West as ten years ago. Thousands more go in each month. And each new phone added makes your telephone that much more useful.

YOUTHS MEET

The Mission Youth Center met on Thursday evening at the I.D.E.S. hall for their regular business meeting, conducted by President Richard Meyers and, following all necessary business, they made plans for their Halloween party and dance. Games and dancing will feature the evening and the committees are keeping decorations and refreshments a secret. This will take place on October 23 and is invitational. The Catholic Youth Center of Centerville has invited the Mission Group to be their guests on October 16 at their Harvest Dance at Parish Hall. On Monday evening a special meeting was called and from volunteers in the group, twelve were picked to go in pairs and canvass the town for the Community Chest under the chairmanship of Mrs. Bottenberg, advisor for the group. So this year the Youth Center is doing its part for the drive and helping out in a very worthwhile cause.

SAD NEWS

More sad news for old-timers and even the younger ones, too, was the passing of Manuel Rogers, aged 52, at Los Altos on Sunday. Mr. Rogers was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Clement Rogers who lived for many years here in the home which now belongs to the Harold Millards. He was interred in Santa Clara Cemetery following funeral services at St. Nicholas Church in Mountain View. He had lived for many years in Hollister and 15 years ago bought an orchard in Los Altos where he had lived until his passing. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Olga Rogers; a son, Lester, of San Jose; three brothers, Joe and Frank of Hollister and Carl of San Jose; a sister, Annie Rogers of Pacific Grove, and one granddaughter.

BUILDING NEWS

The new home that the Dominican Sisters are having erected for one of their men, Mr. Frank Costa and his family, is progressing nicely.

LOOKING IT OVER

Another new home, but not in the Mission, was inspected by Mr. and Mrs. George Rodrigues and family, in Sunnyvale one evening last week. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Amaral and family of that town purchased it and sister Mary and George went to look it over.

ELUSIVE DEER

It surely is fun to jump into that truck with all the equipment for a three-day outing in the mountains, but what disappointment it is when those deer just play hide and seek or completely disappear. That is the result of another week-end for Mr. Joseph Borge and son, Jack, and Mr. Tom Cunha and son, Cappy. This is their first year to fail, but better luck next year. They went way north on this little jaunt. Nice trip, though.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

Mr. Bert McIvor had been almost down with a severe cold for several days but to top it all he was taken suddenly to the San Jose Hospital where he underwent an appendectomy on Monday. Reports are that he is resting easily and if no complications arise he will be home ere long. Speedy recovery Bert.

Motoring over the week-end, on Ed's day off, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Chambers, daughter Beverly and son Ronnie, arrived at Loomis where they spent the time between the parents home and with brothers and sisters. They returned home late Sunday evening.

VENISON FEAST

What a delicious aroma was wafted on the air on Sunday afternoon from the barbecue pit of the Mission Bell Inn, for Maude and Chet Holtz were treating all their friends, patrons and neighbors to a grand deer feed. They were some of the lucky folks who bagged three among their group, who spent two weeks in the wilds and on arrival home planned this fine gesture for the very large crowd that attended throughout the afternoon from one till six. Even Patches, the Holtz dog, was in for his share of the bones, too. Friends from Oakland and vicinity were numerous as Mr. Holtz was formerly on the police force in that city.

afternoon and after about two hours of high mountains that are full of big trees and hard rocks, the group were greeted by the Plumas county group and entertained in royal fashion. The conference lasted well into Sunday morning. Then the local group went sightseeing and finally pulled out for home and the fog belt. Dr. Tom and Bernice Wilson took part in the discussion of crime conditions and are firmly convinced that it doesn't pay and the airplane is here to stay.

Next Sunday the local birdmen will fly to Merced for the big breakfast and then the aerial contests which complete the program. Such events as spot landings, paper cutting and balloon bursting will feature the program. "Nooky" Cardoza hopes to compete and plain ordinary landings are his specialty. "Any landing you can walk away from is a good one," is his password.

After the program some of the local flyers plan to fly to Bass Lake for a swim and dinner. This group includes Ruth Higuera, Walter Stammet, Everett Mendenhall, Pete DeTrant and Neils Neilsen.

CENTERVILLE C.Y.C. DANCE OCTOBER 16

At the regular monthly meeting this week of the Catholic Youth Center of Centerville, it was announced that they will sponsor a Harvest Dance on October 16 in the Centerville Parish Hall. Members of the Mission San Jose Youth Center will be honored guests at the event.

Dancing will start at 8 p.m. to the music of Manuel Pinto and his 4-piece orchestra. The hall will be decorated in the true harvest spirit, with Melvin Lewis as chairman of the decorating committee. President Ray Bettencourt is the general chairman of the dance arrangements.

Another October event for the Youth Center will be the quarterly communion breakfast, to be held following the 8 a.m. mass on the morning of October 17, at the Centerville Elementary School. Mrs. Caroline Brown is the chairman, assisted by May Francis, Rose Furtado, Ann Ferraris, May Rogers, Elsie Amaral, Polly Sousa and Angie Bettencourt.

HIGH CHATTER

By MARGARET COLE

It's no use trying to be original these days because the all-absorbing topic is football. A short paragraph in Campbell's "Campus Echo" was devoted to a few remarks about the Huskies. The writer seemed to think that this year Washington is really the mystery team of the league. This person dares to predict that the Washington Huskies will stand in fifth place and Campbell first. Obviously he has not seen our team in action.

The Huskies first league game with Gilroy last Friday left the Mustangs down-hearted with a score of twenty-eight to nothing. Gilroy's B team also fought a losing battle with our ferocious Pup-pies.

Congratulations to the squad and to the drill team and band. Majorettes Dolly Silveria, Maxine Nova and Carol Perry out-stepped and out-glamored the Gilroy girls.

Tonight it's Fremont's turn to get it in the neck. ("Campus Echo" puts Fremont in sixth place.)

All the speculation concerning the Song and Yell contest was settled last Friday. The judges, Mrs. Bottenberg, Mr. Kirkbride and Mr. Joe Adams, showing great powers of endurance, listened to every class put its best foot forward. It was decided that the Seniors under the excellent leadership of Diane Avakian, were tops. The Sophomores, giving them a run for their money, took a close second place with the Juniors third and Freshmen trailing.

These contests seem to run in a set pattern. The Student Body Card contest wound up in the same order. The Seniors are very proud of the hundred per cent score. Sophomores follow with ninety-five per cent, Juniors with eighty-six per cent, and the Freshmen with 72 per cent.

Things seem normal again now that "Pop" is back in his office. He's just bubbling over with enthusiasm and new ideas after attending a conference of District Superintendents at Long Beach. His visit to the "School of Tomorrow" exhibit left him agape with amazement and admiration. Making use of the very latest in equipment and teaching techniques the future school will be as different from the most modern of today's schools as the imagination can conceive. The gym, "Pop" says, looks like something out of a Buck Rogers fantasy. Maybe we can persuade him to tell us more about this in assembly. Of course we like Washington High as it is now!

Our mail must be going astray these days. So far we haven't received the promised (or threatened) letter from that "distracted Junior" who, every week, takes exception to something in this column. She really should unburden herself in writing. As a matter of fact, anyone with a complaint, criticism, suggestion or contribution, is hereby invited to take pen in hand and maybe we can have a readers' forum as part of this column.

Helpful Hints and Wiscracks Department:

Alma: Why didn't the Irish potato want his daughter to marry Walter Winchell?

Mitzi: You got me.

Alma: Because he's only a commentator, natch.

From Kimber's via Mary Lynn comes the vital information that one should avoid resorting to mathematics concerning one's domestic gallinaceous birds prior to their evolution from the embryonic state. No doubt the same state of mind is essential to the raising of guppies and tropical fish.

Is everyone set for the C.S.F. dance after the game next Friday? Don't forget that Frank Gyax' band will be on hand. If you haven't already bought your student body card (required for admission), hurry hurry, HURRY!

CENTREVILLE P.T.A. TO MEET NEXT TUESDAY

Centerville Elementary School P.T.A. will meet in the school auditorium on next Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 19, at 2:30.

Mrs. Ray Rodriguez, president, will conduct a short business meeting and there will be a program of folk dances and instrumental selections by boys and girls of the upper grades.

Co-hostess for the evening was Mrs. Verna Silva.

IRVINGTON CHAMBER OF COMMERCE NEWS

Eighteen members of the Irvington Chamber of Commerce attended the regular weekly meeting last Tuesday noon at Roethlin's Cafe. In the absence of President Vernon Leal, Vice-President Rowan Henry presided.

Gus Robertson and Rowan Henry were selected to attend the dinner, October 13, at the International Kitchen, for the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Alameda County.

A question arose as to whether the parking area in front of the new Irvington post office could be changed to a restricted area, since double parking has become quite a traffic hazard at that spot.

DE GUADALUPE Y.L.I. ATTENDS BANQUET

De Guadalupe Y.L.I. was represented at the banquet honoring Grand Second Vice-President Mrs. Mary Angeli at the Cottage Dining Room last Thursday by Mrs. Fred Dias and Mrs. James Nunes.

The past president of Hanna Institute of San Leandro were hostesses at this affair. Many grand officers of Y.L.I. were present, along with guests from San Francisco, Mill Valley, Oakland, San Leandro, Hayward, and Washington Township.

Following an excellent dinner, members of All Saints Institute of Hayward presented vocal selections, including an original composition in honor of Mrs. Angeli.

BROWNIE TROOP INVESTED AT CEREMONIES OCT. 6

The Alviso-Centerville Brownie Troop 66 held its investiture ceremonies on October 6 in the Centerville school auditorium. The Brownies and their leaders, Lydia Orsetti and Anita Fantuzzi, put on a program for the parents and friends of the girls.

Those invested were Rosemarie Abreu, Diane Hygelund, Estelle Johnson, Mary Maloney, Billie Leah Silva, Marlene Silveria, Patricia Souza, Raelene Lanotti, Loretta Valles, and Eugenia Faria.

A gift was presented to Mrs. Orsetti by the girls in appreciation for all the work and time she gives them. Movies were shown by Joseph Orsetti and refreshments were served after the program.

WARM SPRINGS FIRE DEPT. TO HAVE FIRST BALL

The first annual ball of the Warm Springs Fire Department has been set for Saturday, December 4, according to an announcement this week by John Souza, fire chief.

The department, established three years ago, is celebrating its coming of age with this social event which will be open to the public.

The ball will be held at the Newark Pavilion, with Frank Gyax and his orchestra supplying the music.

CONVENT GARDNER DIES SUDDENLY

William Joseph Ryan, 67, landscape gardener at the Dominican Convent in Mission San Jose for the past few months, died of a heart attack on October 7. A native of New York, Ryan left only one grandson, name unknown, of Oakland.

Funeral services were held last Monday from the Berge Mortuary parlors in Irvington. Mass was said at St. Joseph's Church in Mission San Jose, and interment was at the Los Gatos Cemetery.

HOBBY SECTION MEETS AT OVERACKER HOME

Meeting at the home of Mrs. Michael Overacker of Mission San Jose last Tuesday for a buffet supper, members of the Hobby Section of the Country Club spent the evening carving linoleum for block prints from some excellent and exotic patterns brought back from Hawaii by Mrs. LeRoy Brown when she and her husband visited the islands this summer.

Co-hostess for the evening was Mrs. Verna Silva.

MARINERS INSTALL NEW SIDEWALKS

Members of the Presbyterian Church of Newark are pointing with pride these days to the new sidewalks around their church. Credit for the improvement can be given to the men of the Mariner's Club and their friends who have spent two week-ends laying the new paths themselves.

A dinner was served last Saturday noon at the church to the hard-working Mariners by the feminine half of the organization.

Skippers of the group are Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Cogswell.

PLEASANTON MAN DIES IN CENTREVILLE

One of the few surviving Indians from the old Pleasanton ranch area died suddenly in Centerville, October 8. "Tony" J. Guzman, 57, a native of Pleasanton, passed away at his home, and is survived by his two brothers, Jack and Fred, Guzman of Niles.
